“ Bob, Dana, Rita, Norman and grandkids---and most especially to Marge--I was very sorry to hear that Carl had passed on a few days ago. Whenever, however, it's always a shock, always sudden. I most remember Carl from a long-ago Thanksgiving when he and Marge were kind enough to include me with family--lots of food, lots of wine and beer---and later, after many raucus stories that only I had never heard before, and, after sundown, as predicted--Carl @ the Barcalounger, "watching" football, snoring.

I know he was a fantastic grandfather, and that he felt a very deep and lasting love for his wife and children, though he seemed to an outsider to be a bit of a loner--a thinker, a person who both contemplates and reflects on 'Life' and on living. I know you will miss him terribly, but I do think he has given you much to remember him by-- Just remember, often, to take the time, together, to do so.

My condolences and affection,

Katherine Waugh

“ I will be praying for you Mike and your family as you say good bye to your wonderful grandfather tomorrow. The tribute from his fellow servicemen was so touching.

God Bless!

“ I will always smile when I think of Uncle Carl. His humor and chuckle will be treasured memories.

We will miss the emails that regularly reminded us of his smile and that chuckle. (Of course, some of the emails made me blush.)

Please, know our best thoughts are with you as always.

Much love,
Cathy and Maurice

“ Margie and Family,

Words cannot express the sorrow we feel for your (our) loss. Carl was a good shipmate and, like you, we loved him too. We only hope that our sincere sympathy will somehow ease your pain.

The Bang Gang

Lord this departed Shipmate with Dolphins on his chest,
Is part of an outfit known to be the best.
Please welcome him and offer him your hand,
As you no doubt know he's the best in the land.
And also heavenly Father add his name to the roll
Of our departed Shipmates who serve on Final Patrol.
Assure them all that we, who still survive
Will always keep their memory alive.
