“ Mr and Mrs Andrew and family. I hold yd uour family up in my prayers. May the God of peace and comfort watch over you and surround you with your loving friends and family. My son, Michael graduated with Dean. I hope the fundraiser concert I did with my friends a couple years ago brought happiness to Dean for that one day. My sympathies.

“ Dear Laurie, Gary and Dylan,
The Lord no doubtedly welcomed Dean with open arms into eternal happiness.
We pray that He gives you the strength to bear this terrible loss for it is written:
"The Lord is close to the brokenhearted;
and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34)
With sympathy and love,
Nick, Andria, Sal and Caterina

“ Dear Gary, Laurie, and Dylan,

May God continue to fill you with His peace and strength during your time of mourning. I know the sorrow and heat-ache you are experiencing, but God is faithful to fill the empty places with His unfailing love.

When life returns to its daily rythmic pattern, and it seems as if all is still and your heart if flooded with emotion, may I suggest that you turn your eyes to Jesus. In the midst of your tears you can trust and be comforted in knowing that Dean is in the loving arms of our Savior.

Jesus' love is more than enough to carry you through. You are in my prayers. May God Bless you and comfort you now and until we are re-united with our children.

In Christ Love,

“ There are times we experience something so painful in which there is no explanation. We look to a higher power and then to each other for comfort. In the short time I was able to know Dean, he left a special mark in my soul. It was a pleasure to know him. My heart and prayers are with you Laurie, Gary and Dillon.

“ Laurie and Gary -- we are friends of Cathy and Alan and have followed Dean's illness with concern since he was first diagnosed. I lost my father to a brain tumor some years ago, but I cannot imagine the pain of your loss when Dean clearly had such potential to continue to contribute on this earth. Hope your pain eases in time --

“ Gary, Laurie and Dylan,
We are so deeply saddened at the passing of Dean. He will always be in our hearts. You will carry on his spirit because he will always be with you.
Our families grew together and we were always so proud of Dean, and so proud of you and how you took care of him when he needed it most. There are no two people in the world that could have loved and taken care of their son better than you. We love you! Love, Vince, Andrea, Cassie and Ashley

“ Gary and Laurie,
I don't think words can ever express how truly sorry and saddened we are for your loss. Dean was a true fighter, and so very brave for all that he had gone through. You are family to us. Our sons were like the best of friends growing up together, such as we all had. We will always cherish all the great times...so many memories....
I know Bobby would of preferred to have been here for all of you instead of overseas right now. Know that we are here for you and love you....

“ my heart breaks more and more as the minutes go by without you here but then i remember all the good times we had and hoe your family opened up their home for me to grow and learn with you i could never thank them enough for turning me into that much of a better person in their own individual way they taught me about you and myself i learned about unconditional love and realized just because your body isnt here doesnt mean your love is gone it lives inside of all of us everyday. we have so many memories together and even though we were apart for some time which is the only thing i have ever regretted in this world ever doing, you were always on my mind you are my one true love and i will never forget the times we shared your family will always be considered my family and i promise i will love them like they were my own. even though the best part of me was taken when you left only you can know and understand the pain i feel without you here my rock my support has moved onto a better more beautiful place than this i consider myself lucky most people search forever to find their sole mates i am more than great full to have already found mine ill always keep the key to your heart safe with me and you will always be carried with me everyday.....i'll be seeing you babe i love you more than words can describe forever and always

“ Gary and Laurie,
There are no words that can express the deep sadness we feel for the loss of your son, Dean.

Dean is no longer suffering and is resting in peace with God. He is always with you, in your heart and memory.

Though we are not there, our thoughts and prayers are with you through this difficult time. Seek comfort in the love you share with each other and Dylan, the love of your family and friends, and the love of God.

Lovingly,
Bob and Glorianne

“ On behalf of the family of faith at Centerpoint Community Church we want to extend our deepest sympathy to all the family. Dean's grandparents, Dean and Kristine, are members of Centerpoint. They have shared the struggle of the last two years with us as we prayed together for Dean. Please let us know if there is anything we can do to help. Blessings, Pastor Bill Swilling “ Words alone cannot express the sorrow in our hearts for this beautiful young man being taken from us at such a young age. Gary, Laurie and Dylan please know the entire Weldon family is here for you. Dean will now light up the heavens as he did so many times for us on the 4th of July, may you now rest in piece.

John and Jerrienne Weldon - April 07, 2011 at 11:30 AM

“ Laurie - Although he lived a short life with you - hold onto the good memories to get you through this difficult time. Warm thoughts and peace to your family. Love Moira

“ Dean was like a son to me and will be dearly missed. I will try to remember the happy times and his great smile and the way he lit up the room with it. Having him with Brianna and as a part of my family was an absolute pleasure. He was taken away much too soon. We all love him and will miss him.
