“ To all family members, Genealogy is my hobby. I have done extensive research on all my French Canadian ancestors. That means that I have done all the research for the ancestors of Gabe’s parents Ernest Lavoie and Jeanne Albina Berube. They were both direct descendants to Quebec pioneer Marie-Catherine Baillon that married Jacques Miville, Sieur des Chenes on 12 Nov 1669 at Notre Dame of Québec City. Marie-Catherine Baillon was a direct descendant of Charlemagne King-of-the-Franks-&-Emperor. That means that Gabe was the 35th Great Granddaughter of Charlemagne King-of-the-Franks-&-Emperor. I truly enjoy sharing my research, so if any of Gabe’s family are interested, please get in touch with me.

“ My condolences to all of Gabe’s family and friends. Gabe and my 96 year old Mother Irene Ricard-Manseau were first cousins.

Mom was very sad to hear that she lost another cousin. She said that she will miss not calling Gabe on her birthday in September.

Because I have always lived outside of Nashua, I did not have much contact with this side of the family. The last time that I visited Gabe was in 2005.

I do however remember that when I was about 10 and the twins were about 15, they took me to the movies. Once there Gabe and I went in as minors with no problem. Rachel on the other hand had to pay the adult price because she had no proof of her age and no one believed that they were twins. Once inside Gabe said, “I told you not to wear high heels and makeup.”
