“ Oh what a wonderful lady! Jeanette was my Mom-in-law for nearly forty years and treated me like one of her boys. She was THE example of a lady in the truest sense, a woman of virtue, a great sport, a loving mother and wife, a very fun girl to vie against in the back yard on holiday afternoons. (I beat her once at badminton) My dear Jeanette, I fell to pieces when you left our presence but I know you're okay now and I'll be okay too, knowing you're with Richard. Thank you so much! You made me an honorary Baker and I love you to the moon and back.
