“ Joyce was a special friend. Remember our trip to Bermuda, that was super. You had that great smile and always a helping hand. My last reunion at BHS was the first, the fifth year and we went together. Wish I had been to the last one so I could have been with you one more time. Love you Joyce, say hello to Jesus for me.

“ I had the pleasure of singing in the choir with Joyce at St. Thomas Aquinas Church several years ago. She impressed me as a very kind and energetic person. May God grant you His eternal peace Joyce! And may God comfort your family. Peace and All Good.

“ Dear Theresa,
I am so sorry to learn of the passing of your Mom. She certainly was "spunky" and wow - was she amazing. Of course I knew she was active but had no idea just how many worthy causes she was active in. She was a great person who raised a great daughter.
It's wonderful knowing that she is now reunited with your Dad but I am so very sorry for your loss. My heart goes out to you, Larry and the kids.
Love you,
Stacie

“ Dear Terri, Frank and family, I was so sorry to hear of Joyce's passing and yet I know she left with courage and passion. We had a few late night conversations when neither of us could sleep and discussed her great love for her family and the strength it took to keep "fighting the good fight". Terri, she didn't want to leave any of you but was so weary. She is at peace now and you must be thankful for that. Take comfort in her love for you. Marsha

“ Joyce will be sadly missed. She was a caring and funny friend. I will miss our annual golf outing at St. Johns. It was great to see the smile on her face last year when she won the long drive competition. We will all miss the laughter that Joyce brought to our team. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Dear Theresa, You don't know me, but on this which is Joyce's birthday, I wanted to tell you how about 60 years ago, while she was spending summers with her grandmother Hartl on Forest St. in East Hartford, Joyce was my special girl friend. She worked on our family farm and one evening we attended Mass at St. Christopher's - in August - probably Feast of the Assumption, we walked home together holding hands, along a long, back dirt road. Despite being eaten alive by mosquitoes, we stopped and kissed. The world seemed to explode. No one ever had that effect on me. No one. Ever. She was really a brave and special person as the preceding tributes indicate. I miss her and wish I didn't lose track. My older son is now a police officer in NH and so one day if I am ever able and when this pandemic subsides, maybe I 'll at least be able to visit her graveside.
