

Judith "Judy" Bobola

April 23, 1944 - October 31, 2011

Obituary Judith Bobola

Judith (Sarmiento) Bobola, 67 of Hudson died Monday October 31, 2011 at the Community Hospice House surrounded by her loving family following a lengthy battle with cancer.

She was born April 23, 1944 in Lowell, MA daughter of the late Joseph and Dorothy (Shugrue) Sarmiento. She was also predeceased by a brother Michael Sarmiento.

Judy was the beloved wife of John Bobola of Hudson.

She enjoyed music and dancing and loved celebrating Christmas. Judy's greatest joy came when spending time with her family, especially their wonderful vacations to Disney and trips to the beach.

Besides her loving husband John survivors include two daughters Janice (Bobola) Wiers and her husband Rick of Merrimack, NH, and Joyce (Bobola) White of Hudson. A son, James Bobola and his wife Kerry of Manchester, NH, Five grandchildren, Benjamin Wiers, Jonathan White, Colby White, Elizabeth White, and Kyle Bobola. As well as two brothers Richard Sarmiento and his wife Margaret of Lowell and Robert Sarmiento of Lowell, a sister Donna Pugh and her husband Robert of Colorado Springs, CO. Also several nieces, nephews, cousins, and in laws.

The Bobola family would like to thank the Oncology Dept. at St. Joseph Hospital in Nashua for all their love, compassion, and care they gave.

A Funeral Mass will be celebrated at noon on Saturday November 5th in St. Kathryn Parish, 4 Dracut Rd., in Hudson, NH. ALL MAY MEET AT CHURCH. Burial will be in St. Patrick Cemetery in Hudson. In lieu of flowers the family requests donations be made in Judy's loving memory to St. Joseph Hospital, Oncology Dept., 172 Kinsley St., Nashua NH 03060.

“ To our Neighbor Family, Please know how deeply saddened I am by the loss of your mother. She fought for so long. She was an amazing person who loved her family so much. I know she will watch over all of you. I'll always remember how she signed your names: Giant J...followed by all of your names! Much love to you, Mr. B., Janice, Joyce and Jimmy!

“ I am standing upon the seashore.
A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean.

She is an object of beauty and strength.
I stand and watch her until at length
she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.

Then, someone at my side says;
"There, she is gone!"

"Gone where?"
Gone from my sight. That is all.
She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side and she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.
Her diminished size is in me, not in her.

And just at the moment when someone at my side says, "There, she is gone!"
There are other eyes watching her coming,
and other voices ready to take up the glad shout;
"Here she comes!"

And that is dying I thought this poem fitting for my beautiful sister Rich Sarmento

“ You were suppose to wait till after Christmas so we could have one more shopping trip and lunch together.

I will go and pretend you are still there with me and drink that glass of wine for you.

I will miss you so much.

Love
Kathy

“ Our deepest sympathy to the Bobola Family. Judy was my best friend growing up and all through school. Judy was funny and fun to be with. All the softball games we shared rooting for our daughters. Judy will be dearly missed. Judy and Joe Gregoire

Judy and Joe Gregoire - November 02, 2011 at 03:17 PM

“ Our thoughts, sympathy and prayers go to Judie's wonderful and loving family. Donna and I admired her so much growing up. She was the "big sister" and she was beautiful and lovely and always looked just perfect in our eyes. Donna would always "just ask Judie" whatever was on our minds. Judie knew, and everything would be just fine because she was the "big sister" after all. With much love - "Kathy Winn"
