“ Kenny my dear sweet friend I just found out today when I was trying to call you for your birthday, since we are only two weeks apart!...I thought when I left the US for overseas that I would see you again the next time I came to DC, now my last memory (always fine) is a haircut and a lovely dinner in August 2009...My deepest sympathy to your family and friends in Baltimore, I am sure you are well missed...

Gregory Nero - September 11, 2010 at 05:02 PM

“ I was deeply saddened and shocked today to learn of Kenny's passing. As a friend and my hairdresser for 14 years and a fellow New Englander, I trusted him implicitly and delighted in telling him my antics while learning about his each time I sat in his chair! I find comfort in Lenny Stem's quote in Baltimore Out Loud "...I know that I have a wonderful angel in heaven and that is Kenny Clinton. And I know he has already started doing people's hair." To Kenny's beloved friends and family, I wish you peace in the knowledge that Kenny made a difference in so many peoples' lives. He will be deeply missed. May God bless Kenny and may God bless his friends and family and help you to heal.

“ When I think of Kenny Clinton I can immediately see his quick, wicked smiles. Kenny had such an outrageous and gutsy, old-school wit and fashion sense. Kenny - you will be remembered well and missed.

“ Kenny has been cutting my hair for over 20 years. He was the best and we always had a good time for the short time I was in the chair. We would also email each other. Just knowing he was in the world brought a warmness and smile to me. He'll be greatly missed. Save some cute angels for me. God Bless.

“ Kenny’s death is untimely. Sometimes many of us run to sadness, when someone is in trouble or hurt, but always in death. There are elements of that emotion that must exist in order for us to stay strong, and there is no way to escape it, thus a heavy, broken heart. However, we must, and I do, look at the happy moments as our guide. I feel pretty damn lucky to have known Kenny. He brought joy and happiness to my world. Dearest Kenny, I am eternally grateful for each and every one of those “no less than 15 minutes.” They are what I will cherish the most. R.I.P. - paerki

“ Although I'd never met Kenny face-to-face, he was always cheerful to talk to. I know his family will miss him greatly, especially Jeanine, who was always excited to hear that he was on the phone. He was a most sincere, friendly person, who never had a bad thing to say about anyone. Although it's been at least ten years since last speaking to him, and having never met him, his passing still stings.

Jeff N. - February 17, 2010 at 12:42 PM

“ Bob and I want to send our heartfelt sympathy to Marlene and Lee, Steve, Dee, Bev and Jeanine as well as the whole Clinton family.
It has been at least 20 years since I last saw Kenny. Im glad he pursued his dreams of becoming a hairdresser because he was indeed a talented, sweet and funny guy! Take care of each other, love each other and never stay angry...He was truly a shining star.

“ I will never forget the last time i saw you on thanksgiving 2009 at auntie dees house, for some reason everytime i think of you i go back to the last moment i saw your face. You were super funny, smart & very talented, you were a brat as a kid from what ive heard but you turned out to be an amazing person. Why do bad things happen to good people? I dont know why God took you from us all, but everything happens for a reason...i pray to you everyday & i hope your in a better place watching over us all. Im going to miss you on the holidays especially thanksgiving & it will never be the same without you. You will always be missed and never forgotten.

“ Uncle Kenny & Marlene,,,The words sorry & sad don't even begin to express how horrible the "way to soon" loss of your son. I remember my little cousin Kenny as a new born, A Beautiful Baby Boy so tender, full of life & love! I am blessed to have "babysat" Kenny and to be apart of the Clinton family. Love & prayers to everyone of the Clinton family, I know loosing a brother is heartbreaking.

“ Kenny,
My mentor my friend you rescued me many times. You made me the hairdresser that i am today. You always told me to go for it and i did my dream was because of you even when my dream put a block between us we still kept in touch. Thru email and a phone call every now and then. You brought light and smiles and laughter to everyone you came across. My heart aches just thinking of you not being here. Our paths will cross again and you will teach me new things. I celebrated already your new journey the way you had always told me to do. I think this is the only subject you and i talked about so deep. I will pass it on to our close friends. So you owe me one i think this is the only thing you and i have ever kept a secret from all our friends well two. I love you and will miss you so much. more than words can say. My prayers and sympathy are with your family.

“ Dear Family,

Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of our dear friend Kenny. I had the privilege to know Kenny for a short time while I lived in Baltimore. He was the most vivacious person with a zest for life that was infectious. I never met anyone who didn't like him.
He will be greatly missed but not forgotten. His time here was far too short but he always lived his life to it's fullest. May it bring you some comfort to know that he was a blessing that touched so many people's lives.

Bear Hugs,
