“ I will always cherish the memories of my favorite Aunt. She was always kind, interested, and upbeat to me ever since childhood. She slid down the hill in the winter with us, always worked hard and dressed impeccably as a younger woman. She took time to talk to me and explain things to me when I visited her in 2005, living next door to attend beauty school. She gave God glory for the victories in her life's struggles, which were many. I can hope to see her again because of this. And I take comfort knowing she can rest now from life's hardships and I pray I see her on the other side. Love you Aunt Lori so much.

“ Lori was a strong independent woman who wasn't afraid to give you an opinion. I loved that about her. I'll think about her every time I make a macaroon or scratch a lottery ticket. I'll miss our visits. She touched my life.

Loved her and will miss her.

Our condolences to her family
