

Margie F. (Evans) Rohrbacher

July 7, 1927 - February 17, 2011

Margie F. (Evans) Rohrbacher, 83, of Nashua, NH and formerly of Toledo, OH died early Thursday morning February 17, 2011 at the Community Hospice House in Merrimack, NH.

Her great sense of style extended beyond the garden to her home. Margie was a loving mother and friend who will be missed by all who knew her.

Margie is survived by a son, James Rohrbacher of Hudson, NH; a daughter-in-law, Dawn Reardon Rohrbacher of Nashua, NH and many dear friends.

All burial service will be private.

“ Marge was a neighbor and friend for many years.

Beyond the blessings she gave us in her everyday manner, the pageant she created in the back of her Westowne Condo still amazes us.

My condolences to her son and daughter in law.

I will miss her.

“ Jim, Our deepest sympathy to you and your family. You may or may not remember this side of the Bollins, (my father was Gilly Bollin, Roses brother),But I remember you as a little guy and of course your mother who was a sweet person. Although I was a few years younger, I vividly remember and looked forward to her visits to our house when we were kids, and she would come and stay with us for a few days during the summer. Although we drifted apart later in life as we raised our own families, I thought of her often and remembered her as a kind, loving lady and will keep her in my heart as such, always.

“ Jim, I am saddened to hear of your mother's death and am very sorry for your loss.

I have many fond memories growing up and making myself a nuisance around your house. Your mom always put up with us getting into some kind of trouble. I know you have many good memories as well and will miss her.

Sincerely, Don Sutphin

“ Jim - Thank you for bringing your Mom to Nashua. I feel blessed to be a friend in her end of life journey. Oh, How I would have loved to be a guest in her own home and garden. She would be surprised to know just how much I loved her. She will forever be with me. Love Martha

“ It was a real shock to see Marge's obituary in the Blade last week.

My condolences to you, Jim, and also to Dawn who Marge cared so much about. I remember meeting both of you at the time of Jim's father's death when I picked you up at the airport and took you to Marge's.

Marge and I had birthdays within a couple of weeks of each other and we usually went to lunch sometime in between to celebrate. We also had many other lunches and get-togethers with interesting conversations and lots of laughs.

It was wonderful that she moved to NH to spend the last few years the two people she loved the most. I was very happy for her.

She will be missed by me and many other friends in Toledo.

Regards,
Esther Horst

“ When we first moved into Westowne we were very leery about our new neighbors. As it turned out, we found Marge to be one of the best neighbors and friends we've ever had. We enjoyed many evenings on her patio drinking her wonderful Bloody Marys and solving all the problems of the world! Marge enjoyed Joe's fresh fried fish. She loved her flower gardens and hummingbirds. We always told her she had the most beautiful yard in Westowne! We miss her and will always remember her. Love, Joe, Joy and Sadie

“ Dear Jim and Dawn,

I am so sorry for your loss. I so enjoyed meeting and getting to know your Mom. Whether discussing politics, grabbing a bite, shopping, or just chatting, we shared many good times. She reminded me so much of my own Mom, who is always in my heart.

Now there is one more star in heaven...one more star in the sky. Warmest thoughts.
