“ On behalf of my husband Paul and myself I would like to send my condolences to Roland's wife Sandy and all of the family. I was in Roland's High School class in Caribou Maine. However for all the 40 years Paul and I have lived in Hudson, our paths did not cross with Roland. I saw him briefly at a class reunion in Caribou several years ago. Our thoughts are with all of the family at this difficult time.

“ Dear Uncle Roland, Its hard to believe that you are no longer here with us and we wont be hearing any more of your jokes, or seeing you in your slippers, that you went every where in!!!! It just doesn't seem fair that you we're taken from us so sudden. We have many, many, many fond memeories of you that we will forever keep alive and hold dear to our hearts. You are a wonderful, caring, funny guy and you will be missed dearly. We love and miss you. RIP uncle Roland.

“ Dear Roland,

Thank you for first creating my wonderful husband and for teaching him how to be a great man. As his wife, I have reaped the benefits of all you have given him. Thank you for giving him a good sense of humor and an amazing work ethic. Thank you for teaching him how to make things out of wood, to do home electrical and plumbing projects and repairs (whether it is always officially up to code is irrelevant) and for teaching him how to make the best spaghetti sauce. I wish that he would have inherited your love of meticulous landscaping, but that's OK. There are many times when I say "you sounded just like your dad when you said that" - this will now be more special than ever. Whenever I see him pickling something, wearing slippers and comfortable pants, it will think of you. I hope that in the years to come he will learn to kick back and enjoy life a little more, like you did. You will be missed - rest in peace.

Love,
Jessica

“ Sandy, I will miss "repeat" Roland. I am so fortunate to have so many of his wood workings in my home. I will also miss his many jokes, some I even laughed after the second or third or fourth time he told them. May he rest in peace. Love, Vicky and Buddy Leo.
