

Sandra Sandberg

March 27, 1942 - April 16, 2017

Sandra Sandberg, 75, of Nashua, NH, died Sunday, April 16, 2017 at St. Joseph Hospital in Nashua following a brief illness.

She was born March 27, 1942 in Winchester, MA, daughter of the late Harry and Norma (Bianchi) Mueller.

Sandy can best be described as “selfless.” She never put herself first and made sure that friends and family always felt special. Affectionately referred to as a “Hallmark Queen”, she remembered birthdays, holidays, anniversaries, and any date that may have been important in someone’s life by sending a card with her beautiful poetic wishes. Sandy was a hardworking mother, who raised two girls on her own and loved to be surrounded by them and as they grew, their families as well. Her great granddaughter, Quinn Marie, lit up her world. Sandy lived a life of giving and will fondly be remembered by all who knew her.

Sandy’s loving family includes two daughters, Kristen and Michael Morrison, with whom she resided in Nashua, Kim Brown and her husband Gary of North Attleboro, MA, four grandchildren, Lindsay Eaton and her husband Spenser of Amesbury, MA, Taylor Morrison of Boston, MA, Justine Brown of North Attleboro, MA and Dillon Brown of North Attleboro, MA, one great granddaughter, Quinn Marie Eaton of Amesbury, MA. She is survived also by one sister, Gretchen Raymond and her husband Loren of Akron, OH, and one brother, Skip Mueller and his wife Sharon of San Diego, CA, as well as many dear friends and extended family.

All services will be private.

“ Our Mimi was the most special person in my life. Saying she was 'selfless' seems like the biggest understatement of the century. She put EVERYONE'S wants and needs above and beyond her own, almost to a fault. She was my number one fan since day one and reminded me how special and important I was on a regular basis. Whether it was 2 o'clock in the afternoon or 2 o'clock in the morning - she was available to talk about anything. She has helped me through some really tough times in my life whether I needed a shoulder to cry on or some tough love - she would be there without judgement. When Spenser and I had Quinn last year, she instantly became the brightest light in Mimi's life. Watching the bond they formed was so magical and pure. When Quinn saw Mimi walk into a room her face just lit up and she smiled from ear to ear. her favorite thing to do with Q was to read books and sing to her. Mimi would constantly say, "I just want to live long enough for Quinn to remember me." Quinn will always remember her, and we will always remind Quinn how much her Mimi loved her. I'm so sad she is gone, it just breaks my heart. We took pictures of Quinn eating her 1st Birthday cupcake last night and I went to send them to Mimi - before I remembered and stopped myself with tears welling up. It doesn't seem real. However it gives me peace to know she lived a long, happy, and full life - and she is in a better place now that is so beautiful and she is free and can breathe without struggling or being in pain. Knowing this is comforting. I love you, Mimi - you will always be a part of me and you will always be with me.

Love,
Lindsay
