“ I'm so sorry to hear, belatedly, of Steve's passing. I had known him for several years at Dana-Farber, and always enjoyed so much talking and laughing with him. He was always so upbeat, despite his serious illness. I will continue to keep him and his family in my prayers. May God bless you all and bring you comfort. I'll miss your smile, Steve.

“ I have know Steve for 25 years when he joined our fantasy baseball league and then our fantasy football league. He resided two blocks away so I would see him often and communicate several times a week during our baseball and football seasons. Steve was the nicest guy. I can't remember any time having an argument or even harsh words with him. Now we fantasy players always had a complain about his trade offers, which were he wanted to trade his bums for your good guys!! Steve was always upbeat and a joy to be around and a pleasure to call him your friend.I will miss him greatly and so will the other players in our league.

“ Steve, Lisa, Ashely and Kyle came into my life through my kids participating in community sports. I will always recall Steve as one of the most supportive parents, whether cheering from the sidelines or coaching, he always kept the focus on effort, teamwork and fun. He served as a true role model for parents and youth alike. Thank you Steve for enriching my life and the many others your efforts touched. May your family be comforted by the stories and memories you helped to make.

“ To the family my sincere condolences on your loss. I at times find comfort in the holy scriptures especially the account at John chapter 11 where our Lord Jesus gives us a glimpse of what we can look forward to in the near future. There he resurrects his dear friend Lazarus who had passed away. Loss is so hurtful and we all need hope ahead. Once again my deepest sympathy to you all.

“ My son and I have been in a fantasy baseball league with Steve for over 20 years. Two Yankees fans from New Jersey amongst a group of Red Sox fans from New England. We always had so much fun in the league and Steve was always a big part of it. Steve always tried to make trades with all the other owners to improve his teams. I've made many a deal with Steve over the years and always had a blast being around him. He will be missed by everyone who knew him. Rest in peace my friend.

We had lost touch over the years and actually was thinking about him the other day and wondering how he was. Thoughts and prayers to the family at your time of loss. again, sorry the world had to lose one of the nice ones. Rest in Peace Steve

“ I am absolutely heartbroken and sad that I did not get up to Boston to visit with Steve. I've known him since probably kindergarten. We were close friends and hung out together all the time. Played street hockey in the alley together. I helped him with his first car an AMC Javelin. He worked with me at Grand Union. I was in his first wedding. I'm so sorry for your loss.
