“ Faith is meant for times like this
When sorrow comes to you;
Hope is meant to give you strength
To see these hours through....
And may this thought bring comfort
And help in some small way
To strengthen you with Faith
And Hope until a brighter day.

My condolences to you and the famiy. He is resting in a better place now.

“ T2, you were truly "The Great One". Despite all that you were dealing with, you were always more concerned about putting a smile on someone else's face if they needed it. And make us all smile and laugh, you certainly did!! We were friends long before either of us worked at ST, but I am grateful to have strengthened our friendship while working there together. Your friendship is a gift I will always treasure.

“ Tom, my friend, you fought the good fight. "May God hold you in the palm of his hand until we meet again." Working with you was one of the most enjoyable parts of my years at ST. We certainly discussed the ways of the world many, many times and in our minds made it a better place. Thank you for your smile, your laughter, and your friendship. My thoughts and prayers will continue for Vicky and your family.

“ Tommy is with the Lord he got to know personally. I can remember him sleeping at Auntie Emma's as a young boy when I was there and Auntie Emma loved him cause he never stopped eating. But then Bill would be lecturing him on his baseball or basketball performance and Auntie Emma would roll her eyes. I will be praying for you in Seattle as our family prays for you in New Hampshire on Tuesday. Your Cousin, Brian “ Tom, I'll miss your contagious laugh down the hallway, even in the most tense of the working days , you always found a way to lighten us up. Watch over us from up there.

“ I was privileged to be "Tommy T"'s (what referred to him as) colleague and even worked for him, but more important he was a friend to me. My husband too had the opportunity to know and work with him during his final career years with ST. He was a very classy, intelligent, warm and funny gentleman who made a lasting impression on those fortunate to know him. Very saddened by his loss and wish his family, particularly the love of his life Vicki, well at this difficult time.
