“ Dear Sharon, Mike, Marilyn and Linda, I am so sorry for your loss. I know that this is a very difficult time for all of you. I want to share one fond memory of Aunty A that I will never forget. During one of our annual visits to Fitchburg from Punxsy, I was able to spend a night or two at your house. When the time came for me to leave, Aunty A gave me some dresses that Paula had outgrown. There was one particular dress that I absolutely loved and I wore it as often as I could until I too outgrew it. I treasured that dress and have never forgotten your Mom's kindness and generosity to me. You are all in my prayers. Love, Dale##imported-begin##Dale (Hunt) Johnson##imported-end##
