“ I worked with Al at Ferrotec in Nashua for a while and we became friends. We didn't keep in touch all that often after his departure from Ferrotec but we did E-Mail once or twice. Alby is a sweet man who enjoyed his work and his friends. He will be missed by those who had the opportunity to know him. I know that I will miss him.

He was a fun cousin, didn't get to see him much but I remember growing up and visiting Uncle Fred and Aunt Isabel in Hudson, NH, always very musical at their house when Uncle Fred would play his violin. I miss those days. Sorry I could not make it to the wake it would have been nice to see everyone. My name is Tina Levesque and Aunt Leona was ma mother, Uncle Fred's sister
