

Amanda Law-Kuhlman

December 13, 2018

Amanda W. Law Kuhlman, 33, of Nashua, NH and long time resident of Hudson NH, was called to heaven on Wednesday, December 12, 2018. She was born June 22, 1985 to Joseph P. Law of Nashua, NH and Amery Kimball Law of Londonderry, NH.

Amanda was a very proud mom to her three beautiful children Myah, Emmah and Alexander. She took a lot of pride in taking care of everyone she loved. Amanda's carefree and comedic personality lit up any room she walked into. Amanda had a passion for music and a beautiful singing voice.

Most importantly, she loved her family and friends unconditionally and had a way of always making others feel better during times of need. Not only was Amanda a devoted mother, she was a loving sister, daughter and friend to so many.

Amanda's life will continue on through her children. We will miss her deeply. In addition to her parents and children Amanda was survived by her sisters, Tiffany Law of Amherst, NH, Elizabeth Law Smigowski of Londonderry NH, two half brothers Jason and Shaun Law of Mashpee, MA.

She was predeceased by her sister, Jillian W. Law.

“ Amanda is like a little sister to me, I had watched her grow up from a child to a beautiful young woman. Our children used to always play together growing up and she was also our sons first official babysitter! We will miss her immensely but will always remember the love she had for our family. we love you Amanda

“ My thoughts and prayers are for the family and friends. The pain in losing someone at such an early age can be devastating. The Holy Scriptures can be a source of comfort at this time. The account at John chapter 11 can be one source there our Lord Jesus gives us hope for the future to see our loved ones again when he resurrected his dear friends Lazarus who had passed. Please again accept my sincere condolences.

“ My heart is so heavy and it's surreal to see your gorgeous picture and name in an obituary because even though adults a friendship like yours is one we never think of losing because just the thought alone was too heavy to bare, but just like that we are reminded how precious life is; Amanda the moments are hard to sum into memories but some I'll now cherish deeply from riding our bikes from sun up to sun down, to picking tomatoes and green peppers out of any neighborhood garden we could find to avoid going home to eat lunch, gymnastics in “that” woman's basement because we were going to be stars one day to becoming Moms of our own and watching our girls now play on the same team, sitting on a Sat morning on the sidelines sharing our “why I need this large coffee and my hair looks like this...” sagas, to a genuine friendship into our adult lives. There were things I could comfortably talk to you about because it never needed explanation, you gave things a “voice” and heard people's joy and struggles. You'd have very little or need yourself but it was never about you, you were happy and fulfilled in helping someone else not miss out on something or feel a need if you could, whether it was a friend to call at 2am, loaf of bread or pack of diapers. Your heart was bigger than imaginable and words will never succeed in explaining this. Your wit charm and comedic relief in crappy times will forever be my most treasured!!! You were a woman's woman; you understood friendship didn't need daily texts and calls because our kids' needs came first but bet your last dollar if a friend needed you no matter the time passed you'd be there in a heartbeat! I don't know where I'm going with this all other than your light on earth was brighter than many most and to know we won't ever have another vent session or be able to talk about how unfair life is, that's what breaks my heart. We would often speak of how tragic the amount of “goodbyes” we have had to say at our age we'd cry together and lean on one another but never ever did I think it'd be you I'd one day have to say goodbye to! I'll cherish every convo every tear every laugh and find some comfort knowing you with Jill and have all the answers to all the questions you couldn't have, I'll look up daily and picture you 2 dancing in that sky! You're as free as a bird now beautiful how lucky are so many to now have you as our angel! Missing you is going to be hard and leave a forever void, your now in absolute beautiful peace and one day we will share our friendship again but until then dance and shine your light on us every now and again, I hope the angels know how lucky they are to have you, because you are one in a million! Rest peacefully Manda 🙏!!!!

“ 7 years ago, I had been having a rough time financially and couldn't really afford to get my daughter anything for Easter. Amanda came to my rescue and dropped off 3 bags of food, toys, and candy so my daughter could have an Easter egg hunt and we could have dinner. I've never forgotten that. She was a kind person with an amazing heart and will surely be missed. Rest in peace pretty lady. 🥹

“ We did everything together when we were kids. We talked about almost everything as adults and grabbed our time together when we could. We had ups and downs, ins and outs, but we never let it stop us. Even being separated by 3000 miles couldn't stop us from maintaining a life long friendship. Today I'm heart broken and will be for the rest of my life. I never thought I'd lose you. I can't even begin to figure out how I'm going to go on without you; knowing that you're not a phone call or text away. I will miss you every day as much as I miss you today. I love you, babe. Rest peacefully.
