

Amanda Primeau

January 12, 1986 - August 14, 2017

Amanda M. Primeau, 31, of Manchester, NH died unexpectedly in an auto accident on Monday August 14, 2017.

Amanda was born on January 12, 1986 in Boston, MA, daughter of Colleen (Primeau) LaRocque and the late Raymond F. LaRocque (2007). Amanda was also predeceased by her paternal grandmother, Beverly Clegg and her maternal grandfather Frank LaRoque.

Amanda Had an infectious smile and a love for life and always wore a ray of sunshine on her face. She was kind and caring, strong and stubborn and worked hard for her family. She was very loved and will be tremendously missed.

Besides her loving mother Colleen and step-father Jose Acevedo, Amanda is survived by her significant other Eric Alvarez and their three children, Jayden, 12, Nevaeh, 9 and Damiyen, 7; two sisters, Shantelle Goulet and her husband Ben of Hudson, NH and Stephanie LaRocque of Hudson; a brother Christian Tavares of Hudson; a maternal grandfather, Ronald Clegg; a paternal grandmother, Janet Mclain; two nieces, Jaylene and Natalie Goulet of Hudson and many aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

In lieu of flowers the family has requested donations to help with related funeral expenses:

“ Amanda, I'll never forget your kind heart from our high school days. You were an amazingly strong person who persevered through all the hurdles that were thrown your way. You will never be forgotten.

Jenn Scanlon-Holloway - August 19, 2017 at 04:38 PM

“ It was always nice to see her smiling in the morning. She'd always give us a couple extra papers. She'd give the shirt off her back if you were in need! I'll miss seeing your Beautiful face and smile! 🌅

“ There's no words to express how much you are loved by so many. You always were there for everyone putting yourself last. You fought the hardest battle and won . I will never forget you coming to the much when jaysonia was born to visit as I cried you held me and said sis it will ne ok she's going to be ok. The day she was coming home you were right there to bring us home we miss you so much. And I know your whole family and 1000000 friends feel the same shine bright beautiful watch over your beautiful babies .I'm going to miss your smile your laugh and your strength I'll see you again in paradise I love u
