“ Memory of Ann: It was because of Ann that I met a wonderful DAV Auxiliary member - Frances Blancato. It was about 15 years ago that I attended my first National Convention in Las Vegas, NV. I was looking for someone to share a room with to save on costs. Ann arranged for me to share a room with Frances Blancato, someone from the auxiliary who I did not know. It was at that convention Fran fell and broke her shoulder. I took care of her, helped her home and we have been the best of friends since. Thank you Ann. You are the best. We love you.

“ To the family of Ann Young from the Disabled American Veterans, Department of New Hampshire: Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Ann was such a valuable asset to the DAV and DAV Auxiliary. She was always ready and willing to help the department, auxiliary and veterans any way possible. She volunteered at all events and attended State and National Conventions. She also volunteered at the VA Medical Center and assisted veterans at bingo, birthday parties and picnics. Ann really enjoyed going to the DAVA Fall Conference in Kentucky. We will truly miss Ann's spirit, determination and positive attitude. She had a lovely contagious smile. Rest in peace Ann. You will live on in our hearts. Written by PDC Denise DeBlois on behalf of Department Commander Ernest Sulloway.

I want to personally thank you for everything you've taught me. You were a blessing to us in so many ways and you will be missed. “ I am so blessed to have know such a wonderful person. She was classy ,independent lady that loved her grandchildren and great grandchildren dearly. My most fondest memory of her was when she flew to North Carolina at 88 years old with Chrissy and Kennedy almost 2 years ago. We had a great time. She loved volunteering and traveling with the Veterans functions. She attended mass every Saturday. Ann touched the lives of so many and was dearly loved by all. She will be truly missed , but I know she is resting in heaven with Jesus now and watching over her family here on earth. A life well lived, we honor the family Matriarch, the First Lady : Mrs Ann Young. God bless you Ann 🌸🌸🌸🌸🌸🌸
