“ I worked with your mom at Dig Safe. She was beautiful hearted and taught me a lot. She brought much joy and laughter in our office, and made the most amazing homemade raviolis. I was blessed to have known her. Sweet dreams sweet Annette.

“ I only met her once, but she left a lasting impression. I liked her immediately, and bet very few people that met her felt any differently. She was quite a character, and I mean that in the best possible way.

“ You will be Missed Mama, you always treated me as another one of your daughters, and I feel blessed to have had you as another Mother. You were a great cook, so generous with anything that you had, and making sure that we all knew that you were Tall, Beautiful, Blonde, and so very Modest. Save us a spot up there, we know that you are in Jesus Arms now.
