“ Barbara and Ken and family, It was a pleasure to have known "Nan." She and "Tex" will always be fond memories in our hearts. Having visited you many wonderful times in the home you all shared it was very evident what an important part of your lives this couple was, truly. Take peace in knowing Nan will be with her beloved as they watch down over you, their loving family.##imported-begin##Judy and John Burke##imported-end##

“ WOW! How precious life is! Auntie Barbara we will beyond a doubt miss you terribly but know that you are smiling down from above with Uncle Lee on one side and your sister on the other. We hold tight to the image of you being met at the gates of Heaven by all those gone before you. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the Paulk and extended families who must go on without your presence; may they find comfort and peace in the many memories that they shared with you through the years.##imported-begin##Donna & Donald Carbone##imported-end##
