“ What do you say at a time like this? Aunt Bev you were very special to me and were my connection to the family that I became disconnected from when my family situation changed. You will always remain special to me in my memories. My heart goes out to Paul during this time. May God's peace be with the family during this time!##imported-begin##ALAN E & BETTY DUNCAN##imported-end##

“ Bev was a kind and loving sister-in-law. She and Paul always opened their house to us-Richie, Bronson and Courtney and me;and after the loss of Richie and Bronson, she let me know that there was always a place for me to come to. We exchanged cards and phone calls often, and she was anticipating my visit this summer. I'm sure that the 'heavenly' Blake gang is playing cards (watch out for Grammi) or cheering on the Celtic and Red Sox. Bev, you are and will always be loved.##imported-begin##Kathy Blake##imported-end##

“ Mom you will be greatly missed. You were loved deeply by those around and who knew you. There will forever be a hole, something missing, in all of the family functions and holiday celebrations.

You were the glue that kept all of our family together, and we know at times that was not easy. You filled out lives with many laughs some intentionally, many unintentionally.

You were the best mom and an even better grandmother. You took such great care and always had the best intentions for your children and more recently your grandchildren. You continued to do everything you could for all of us, even when you did not have anything yourself. Your family always came first without doubt or question. Myself and my children have been blessed to know you and to have you in our lives as long as we did.

It was your time to leave us, but know your memory will always be with us. We will sit around and we will share great stories, stories that you essentially wrote for us. We will laugh and we will cry, as we remember the author of those stories, and we thank god for your time with us.

I will do my best to be less of a wise ass, I know that drove you crazy. I will promise to begin to TRY to filter my thoughts and to consider the feelings of those around me more often (I was just following in your footsteps there, just saying). You have left so it is my turn to step up and be more responsible, and mature (no promises there :o)

Thank you mom for everything. Your kindness and generosity will not be forgotten.##imported-begin##Daren Campbell##imported-end##
