“ I worked with Carole at the Nashua Center from 1983 to 1989. After that I saw her now and then when I visited. Carole was one of the people who interviewed me for my teaching position there. I knew that day that she would be someone I'd like to work with. Kind, funny, very helpful, always calm, friendly, and so very knowledgeable. She was one of the great crew that started the Nashua Center on it's way to greatness. Since leaving there I've taught in other places and states, but have never found a group of people like we had back in the day at Nashua Center. Rest easy, Carole.

Carole's family,
I met Carole several years ago through the AARP/VITA tax programs. She was the most warm and giving person. Carole was a friend, mentor and inspiration over the years. She was always the first person to offer help and guidance to everyone that needed it. She will be missed by so many people that had the pleasure of knowing her. My sincere condolences to her family and friends. - Linda Scrivano

“ Mrs. B as we fondly called her. I’ve known Carol since I was in the 1st grade and have so many fond memories of her. So much time spent at Chagnon Lane. Hanging out in her room listening to the radio and praying our school was called on a snow day, listening to records on her big record player, doing gymnastics on the front lawn, my Mork & Mindy suspenders she got me for my birthday, our mom’s chatting about life. She amazed me at how active she was. How brave she was to get out there and meet people. Mrs. B, you will be missed. 💔❤️👍
