“ She was my oldest sister and not always the Angel that you all see her as!

I was 5 years old and one night my parents were out and Cheryl made me go out *on a small slanted roof to be funny, and locked the window on me!

We certainly had a lot of laughs over the years and many special times together.*

I will miss you!

Love your "favorite" brother!

RIP Cheryl!

“ She was an angel while she was with us. Now she is flying high in the sky with her parents watching her family and us. She had a kind heart and was fun to be with when we got together. She was very helpful in times like these where she would go and set up for folks to come and eat after services such as we are attending on Friday. You will be missed, that kind heart and your great smile. Fly high up there and until we meet again.

Our condolences on the passing of your sister Cheryl. Here is a poem I received when my parents passed. Hope it helps in just a little way.... It brings me memories and tears (good ones) every time I read it. Bless you all, Greg and Pam

*With tiny lights, like Heaven's stars reflecting on the snow.
The sight is so spectacular,
For I am spending Christmas
with Jesus Christ this year.
I hear the many Christmas songs that people hold so dear.
But the sounds of music can't compare with the Christmas choir up here.
I have no words to tell you the joy their voices bring
For it's beyond description,
To hear the angels sing.
I know how much you miss me.
I see pain inside your heart.
But I'm not so far away
we really aren't apart.
So be happy for me dear ones.
You know I hold you dear.
And be glad I'm spending Christmas
with Jesus Christ this year.
I send you each a special gift
From my heavenly home above
I send you each a memory of my undying love.
After all; love is a gift
more precious than pure gold.
It was always most important in the stories Jesus told.
Please love and keep each other as my Father said to do For I can count the blessings of love He has for you So have a Merry Christmas and wipe away that tear Remember, I am spending Christmas
with Jesus Christ this year.
Please let your hearts be joyful,
and let your spirits sing.
I'm spending Christmas in Heaven,
And I'm walking with the King.*
