“ *Jill, I am so sorry for your loss! I did not know Christine very well--we would make small talk as I passed her sitting on your front steps at Fox Hollow. She was always friendly, and easy to talk to. You are in my thoughts and prayers...may you feel God's comfort and love during this difficult time.

“ Ronnie & Rocky - I'm so sorry I won't be able to join you for Chris's services, but I wanted you guys to know how much I'll be thinking of you today and share how much I adored Chris! Her energy, enthusiasm for life and insanely good sense of humor were such a gift. She used to literally have me laughing to tears and I'm so going to miss her! You guys are in my hearts - I'm so sad for you both. I'm sad for all of us who knew her!

“ Christine always knew what to say to make me feel better, whether it was providing advice from her own experiences or simply making me laugh. I shared many late night, mind-expanding conversations with her and will forever miss her laugh. Christine brought light to my life, and I am forever grateful for that. Damage Control, baby.

I will always remember you Christine! Friendly. Loving. Caring person who absolutely loved her mom Jill! You were an Aunt to my boys who never had an aunt. The kids in Fox Hollow loved you. You even showed them how to play hockey with your old hockey sticks which we still have. You taught them how to dive and swim. The kids in Fox Hollow who knew you loved you and appreciate all the attention you gave them. I miss you my friend and all your funny stories. You did truly love your Mom!! You are surely missed!

“ You can shed tears that she is gone,
or you can smile because she lived,

You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back, or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left.

*Your heart can be empty because you can't see her,
or you can be full of the love that you shared,*

*You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.*

You can remember her and only that she is gone, or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn back, or you can do what she would want:

Smile, open your eyes, love, and go on.

We will always love you and keep you in our hearts forever,
