“ Bob and Judy,

We had heard about Chris' death last year sometime I cant really remember.

Was just up in Nh last week with Keith and Matthew and we drove by our cottages and I have had you on my mind since. We stayed at the abakee cottages...which we have done before. It was really too early in the season though...

As you know we lost Dede.....30yrs ago now. She would have been 54 also born in 1968, What can I say that you dont know and continue to feel.

I wish we hadnt lost touch.....saw the cottages and thought of all our good times togehterhow we would arrive and before you know it out on your boat or to the Homestead we went.

Would love to be back in touch. Nothing too new with us....still in our condo but very comfortable for us.....staying in decent health.

If you are ever passing thru this way....let us know....we could even meet you for a lunch or dinner.

Dede would have been 54 today june 19

The loss stays real but somehow we continue to believe we will be together again in our better life.

always miss you and remember so many of the fun times. John keeps wishing id give up the wine but guess Im just a stubborn taurus or whatever

love u

“ For whatever reason, Chris' name came to mind this morning, and I decided to look him up online like I've done with other friends over the years. I've known Chris since we were 11 and our circles of friends overlapped. We didn't spend hardly any time one on one but I spend more than enough time to know that he was a good person. And kind. Snowmobiles, snowmobiles, snowmobiles. Winter was his season and snowmobiling was his thing. Great sense of humor. Always smiling. Straight shooter. This is all from what I remember. Like I said, we didn't spend much time together, but I know he was a good guy. And, it looks like he has a great family and carved out a good life since last I'd seen him 30 years ago. People touch your lives and he made more than enough if an impact in me to that I had to leave this message. Thoughts and prayers with his family and friends from Troy Thomas and family.

“ One of my favorite memories was Chris driving by in his muscle car with his dog in the passenger seat on a beautiful summer day. Blue skies, puffy white clouds, and a world of green. Chris had a big smile and the dog looked as happy as could be. Pure joy for both of them.

Oh Chris. One of the original members of the Bush Hill Gang....We had so much fun over the years. I am going to miss your impromptu visits down my end of the hill, even after you broke the lip off my antique tray. Whoops! I will forever be reminded of you whenever I look at it; still pretty cool, even with a missing part. Sending love Wendy, Scott, Parkers and Roystans. Goodbye, my friend.
