“ Dear Dennis,
I'm so sorry for the loss of your son Christopher, When Christopher gave my Sarah a home, there was such a common connecton between us. I have to say we had many ups and downs. But, so many "good times". I was visited by one of my friends that is a mutul friend of his X, a few day ago when I was in the hospital. And she told me what had happen. I'm so confused and my heart is broken in half. To my Christopher..I'm so sorry after all my attempt to, I couldn't help you. I can only pray to God that you have found your way to him and your dancing and playing your music to him. I pray you are at peace and you found your Mom and Grandparents. I only wish I could talk to you one more time. You will always be in my heart and in my memories, chashing frogs, riding bikes, melvin and sarah, ofcourse your music still in my ears and our elephants!! I've pubished a poem about you, moved for you.. you will never be forgotten and I will always love you..you are my heart...you will always be in my heart.##imported-begin##Kathryn##imported-end##

“ My sweet Chris. It is impossible to put into words all the ways you filled my heart with joy. So many wonderful memories that will last with me forever. The first time we met in high school gym class.
Taking the jeep to see Hootie and the Blow Fish. Summer rides on the bike. You were always able to put a smile on my face when no one else could. Our lives carried on, and we lost touch over time, and for that I am so sorry. If I could just give you one last hug and tell you how much you meant to me. It is such a loss to not have you in this world anymore, but I know your spirit will be here forever.
My thoughts and prayers go out to all who were blessed with your presence.##imported-begin##Melissa (Kellett) Hawley##imported-

I consider myself very fortunate to have known Chris for a long time. I am still in shock by the news and still can't wrap my head around it. I will always love Chris and remember the good times and laughs that we shared. I know he loved Dougie like a son/brother. My heart and prayers go out to all of you.

“ Dear Dennis I am so sorry about Chris, his smile is radiant, his laughter is a sea of contagiousness, his love is forever.

Dear Chris,

Wow, my mom still has the kitten you gave her. He became quite the little rascal he's now old, but always makes my boys laugh, I swear he thinks he's a dog. lol It's fitting she named him CJ after you, always giving us smiles and making us laugh. Chris thank you so much we always made the best memories with our time together. Remember the baseball fields, I still miss about that. We were fun. Thanks for the laughs and memories. with love,

“ Dennis,

I am so sorry to hear about the loss of your son Christopher. I lost my only son many years ago and know how difficult it must be for you and your family to understand and accept his passing. Over time you will only remember the good times, but for now take all the time you need to grieve and be around those that love you. God Bless,
