“ Dear Uncle Ed, Kelly, Jaye, Aunt Laura, Paige and also, Brian, Nate, Cole, and Sam aka(Brooklyn)- it's people like Aunt Clair who make me so proud and grateful of the family i was born into. She had one of the warmest hugs ever given. On the lucky occasions that I saw her, She had a smile the whole time, She loved seeing all of the kids together hehe. I'll never forget the Christmas parties that her and Uncle Ed used to throw, those will be in my memories forever. She was a very classy person, and always put others first as was said at the funeral today. She was the wife, the mother and the grandmother to some of the most excellent people I know, and of whom i am proud and fortunate to say I am related to. I know there is so much more to say about the happiness Aunt Clair brought, but it's hard to write the feelings I have. You're all in my thoughts, and I love you all so much.##imported-begin##warren##imported-end##

“ Dear Uncle Ed, Jaye, Laura, Paige and Kelly:
I wish I had the right words to take away your pain. Just keep in your hearts forever, the memory of the woman that you called Wife, Best Friend, and Mother. She had a gentle soul and a kind, giving heart. Remember her for all that she has taught us. We carry her with us, through us, in our daily lives. Keep her close. She showed us what the meaning of "grace" is. Her love will always be carried with us. Thank you all for sharing her with us. I love you all.##imported-begin##Susan Flanders##imported-end##
