Mrs. Sullivan was born on June 21, 1924 in Washington, DC. She spent her first 31 years living in and around the Washington suburbs, and she worked at the Ft. The Sullivans traveled with the Air Force for the next 14 years, spending the majority of this time in Panama City, Florida, Washington, DC, and Fairbanks, Alaska before retiring to Hudson in 1970. Mrs. Sullivan raised six children with complete devotion of heart and soul. She was a devout Catholic her entire life.

nephews, and cousins. Her legacy will live on through them. She was preceded in death by her parents, William and Teresa Tyrrell, her sister Irene Davis, and earlier this year by her son James, with whom she shared both a birthday and an inseparable bond.
