“ I would like to offer my sincere sympathy to the Dean family. Dan was a good man, giving me an opportunity in the NDT business with Power Aviation. I think about him often and even share fond memories of the Danster with co-workers from long ago. You will be missed Sir!

“ To the memory of Danny Dean, I remember when he was in Ray and Donna's wedding party in 1980. While he was such a ham around the cameras, he passed out in front of the church around the beginning of the ceremony. I saw John and someone else running to help him. May he be in peace. Visit Papa and Meme Dean in Heaven

That I am unable to be up there breaks my heart but I want all of you know how much your love and comfort means to me. Dan was the greatest gift in my life and many people did not understand my continual love for him and you all, his family, while we live thousands of miles apart. Bob, Jeanie, Rob, Brenda, James, Wendy, Kirsten and Chelsealita you are the second greatest gift every given to me and I cherish you more than you will ever know. You are the best. I love you all.
