“ In time this moment of sorrow will pass. But the memories of our friend, and father will forever live within all of us. David was unique, he lived life on his terms, fully and completely. His children were so nice to see, they will walk softly, David walked as if to tamp over the tall brush, with purpose. They are different as much as they will be the same, forever. So many good memories with all of you. My thoughts are with all of you.##imported-begin##kevin Berard##imported-end##

We played softball against each other in the 80's and I wish your family well during these difficult times.##imported-begin##BobLaquerre##imported-end##
