“ okay now I get it! I was sending my sympathies when I really could speak of you! Here it goes..... Until the day that you greet me with Dawn at our campsite in the sky and I know you will, I will always remember your smile, our special heart to heart talks and I thank you for giving me the strength to deal with my M.S. while I was trying to help you with your own issues. The strength you showed us all through your ordeal is simply honorable and you are my hero!! I will never regret keeping your secret knowing how much you trusted me. I will try to honor you by keeping strong through whatever life has to throw at me. Your Loving Friend!! Fluffy

“ Dear Mrs. Matthewman and family: I cannot tell you how shocked and saddened I am to hear of David's death. David has always held a very special place in my heart, and always will. I can see from the online picture that David was still as handsome as he was the day he took me to my 8th grade graduation dance. He made one awkward, shy girl feel like a princess. I am so grateful that I have this memory, and numerous others of him and your family, to remember. May God be with you all during this time of loss.##imported-begin##Leslie Price-Harrower##imported-end##

“ It is with great sympathy and grief that we say farewell..for now...to another brother from our tight group of friends.
Dave, we will miss you so much. Your quiet strength; such I have never seen. Your sense of humor; you could always get a group of us going then slide away in the background and watch us laugh. Your passions; like NASCAR and country music, which we all now share because of you. But most of all, we will miss your smile and the love and passion that you held for each one of us.
Till we meet again.##imported-begin##Marc

“ I read of a Friend who stood to speak at the funeral of his friend.
He referred to the dates on his tombstone from the beginning...to the end.

He noted that first came the date of his birth and spoke of the following date with tears, but he said what mattered most of all was the dash between those years.

For that dash represents all the time that he spent alive on earth...
and now only those who loved him
know what that little line is worth.

For it matters not, how much we own;
the cars...the house...the cash.
What matters is how we live and love
and how we spend our dash.

So think about this long and hard..
are there things you'd like to change?
For you never know how much time is left.

If we could just slow down enough
to consider what's true and real,
and always try to understand the way other people feel.

And be less quick to anger,
and show appreciation more
and love the people in our lives like we've never loved before.

If we treat each other with respect,
and more often wear a smile...
remembering that this special dash might only last a little while.

So, when your eulogy's being read with your life's actions to rehash...

would you be proud of the things they say about how you spent your dash?

*Jean, Vic, "Butch," Cindy, & Jayne, Life on "The Circle," shall always hold warm memories in our hearts!
Bust stops, First day of School, Dogs, Apple trees, bikes, pools, camping, Memorial Day Scouts marching in the center, and just plain ol' good times! Memories of Love, last forever. So too, shall those of David, forever in your heart. He is at Peace, on the run, hiking, camping, and having fun!*

“ Dear Matthewman Family,
I am so sorry for your loss. Davey was a great guy and we shared a lot of good times that made great memories. I remember many years ago when Davey first told me he was sick. I was heartbroken but he told me, it will all be okay and I believed that. I also believe he is in a much better place where pain will no longer be an issue. Cherish the memories. Rest Well Davey.##imported-begin##Brenda (Tonks) Swarbrick##imported-end##
