“ I love you Dee Joyce. Dee was my Mom's BESTIE, when I was growing up in MA. The two ladies were raising children at the same time, so the Joyce children were like cousins, and each visit with them all was an adventure! I can remember watching Mom and Dee sit across the table from each other.....sipping coffee, having a cig, and LAUGHINGthe sheer delight that they shared in simply being together. Dee gave my Mom the life-long gift of friendship and love.

“ Dee was a very dear friend, almost like a sister. Even though I moved away we still kept in touch. When I visited, we connected as though we had never been apart. I shall miss her e-mails, jokes, her sense of humor and I especially admire her spirit and courage these last few months. God Bless You, dear friend.

“ To the family my deepest condolences on your loss. Survivors of a loved one have much pain for a long time and need support. I often and perhaps you do also find comfort from the Holy Scriptures at this time. In John chapter 11 even Jesus wept at the loss of his dear friend Lazarus showing how unnatural it is for a loved one to die. Soon Jesus will resurrect all those in the memorial tombs to life again. What a wonderful hope our creator has given to us all. Once again my thoughts and prayers are with the family.
