“ There is one great big empty spot in our hearts. We are trying to fill it with the great memories of all the laughter and good times we have shared these recent years. We don't start a meal without sharing a prayer for Don. He is deeply missed! Condolences to all of the family!##imported-begin##Jim and Cathy Bourne##imported-end##

“ Judy & Len...it is so hard to say good-bye, especially to your Dad. Going through this difficult time is not easy, but I am sure he wants you and yours to know that, yes, it IS okay to hurt and you ARE going to be sad, but he will always be with you. Miss you guys, and the old Hudson Girl's Softball League days! They were the best. Love to you all...Kathy (Griffus)##imported-begin##Kathy Walter (Griffus)##imported-end##

“ Our sincere and deepest sympathies to all the family.
Don will be greatly missed by all who knew him at Hacienda del Rio. I still expect to see him at the gym and at the dances. His glowing personality brightened every place he went.
A wonderful guy; a superb husband; a man who we were proud to call 'Friend'.##imported-begin##Frank & Eleanor Malia##imported-end##

“ Peps, you were one hell of a guy. We are so thankful that our boys were able to know you and spend so many years with you. We had some great times riding in the golf cart in FL, feeding the manatees at the pier, and you can't forget watching all the Redsox, Celtics and Patriots games together. You will forever be missed but forever in our hearts, conversations and memories. Love you always and forever!!!!##imported-begin##Cyndi, John, Austin and Carson##imported-end##
