Donald Richard Ouellette was an affectionate, dedicated and hardworking, son, brother, husband, father and friend. He would always put the needs of others ahead of his own. Born on November 14, 1968 in Lowell, Massachusetts to his loving parents Richard Ouellette and Viviane Ouellette.

Donald passed away on May 7, 2024. Donald's unexpected passing comes as a shock and a deep wound, and it is gravely felt by the entire family, friends and loved ones, who are still reeling at the loss.

Donald graduated from Greater Lowell Regional Vocational High School. He was passionate about his work. He had 25 years of experience working in advertising and printing, specializing in image re-touching. Throughout his career he worked at Chromadyne in Salem NH, Quad in Woburn MA, and Graphic Packaging International in Lowell MA.

As a young child, Donald loved to draw and his love for art carried him throughout his life.

He will always be remembered for his kindness, good sense of humor, always willing to help and putting the needs of his family first. He was a loving son, brother, husband and father.

Donald Ouellette was preceded in death by his father Richard Ouellette waiting for him at the Door to Heaven. Don is survived by his loving mother Viviane Ouellette, his 18 year old daughter Natalia Ouellette, 7 year old daughter Amelia Ouellette and his wife of 20 years, Joanna Ouellette, who will never forget the love he brought to their lives.

He loved sharks, golf, taking trips to North Conway, working on wood projects seen throughout his home and spending time with his loving family. He was the most supportive father who loved spending time with his daughters who treasured every moment spent with him. He will be forever missed. Until we meet again.

“ Don came to work at Graphic Packaging a little over a year ago. Don and I hit it off from day one. It turns out we had sort of a history, we went to the same School, and had some of the same teachers. Turns out; his Uncle was one of my Printing Teachers. Don was a great guy, and a hard worker, He will be missed. I took the attached pictures on the last day of work, when Graphic Packaging closed its doors on March 12, 2024.. I hope this memory can be enjoyed by his family.. My sincere Condolences... Neil Kelley

“ Don and I worked together pretty much side by side for over 25 years. A lot of that time was talking about our families and how lucky we were. He was a great guy and is going to be missed.

“ I worked with Don many years ago, and what I remember most about him is how decent he was, and how there wasn't a single person who worked with him who ever had a bad word to say about him. A genuinely nice guy, and great to work with. My condolences to his family for such an immeasurable loss.

“ Revisiting memories of Don during our similar commute when he worked in Woburn always brings a smile to my face. Despite our habit of tailgating each other and exchanging gestures on the highway, those moments were filled with laughter and camaraderie. I'll cherish all my memories with Don dearly. Rest in peace, my friend.

“ I agree with Chris and Tracey Donovan, Don was one of the best co-workers I have ever worked with. Our hearts go out to family. It has been 8 years since I have seen Don, but when you work close with someone for 13 years it's hard to imagine the future without out him. Rest in Peace Don
