

Donna M. Keniston

June 2, 1955 - February 11, 2014

Donna M. (Pambookjian) Keniston, 58, of Hudson died Tuesday February 11, 2014 at St. Joseph Hospital in Nashua, NH after suffering from a brief illness.

Donna was born on June 6, 1955 in Revere, MA daughter of the late Neshan and Erdine (Giadaro) Pambookjian and was the loving wife of Charles E. Keniston with whom she shared 20 years of marriage.

Donna worked as a buyer for Airgas and was an IFR rated licensed pilot. She played and taught the flute for many years.

Donna was known to many as Captain Ann Flynte. She and her "crew" participated in many events around New England reenacting historically accurate pirate weaponry.

Besides her loving husband Charles, Donna is survived a large network of loving friends.

Visiting Hours are to be held on Friday February 14th from 3-5:30pm in the Dumont-Sullivan Funeral Home, 50 Ferry St., Hudson. A Prayer Service will be held that same evening beginning at 5:30pm in the Funeral Home. Burial will be private.

“ To all that knew her, she was a spit fire and was just a overall nice person. She will be sadly missed by those that knew her very well and in the Renaissance and Pirate communities as well. Please accept this lit candle from us as we send our condolences to the family.

“ I will always remember the fun times...the jokes about chocolate, the time we took ridiculous photos of us with the cannon, the lobster puns, and the fun we always had at events. The memories will never be forgot, and they will be like a light leading us forward in every on of our lives. Your smile still makes the rain go away, and the sun shine. I will never forget you Captain. I am glad to have been a part of your family the past 6 years. <3

“ Donna, you were the first person to greet me my first day on the job so many years ago. Thank you for that warm greeting and all of your help over the years. Sorry that I was never able to make it to one of your events, which I knew you held so passionately to your soul. You truly were the pirate of the buying center. Your spirit will be miss and may you rest in peace.
