“ David and I would like to acknowledge that the continuing COVID-19 pandemic may prevent some family and friends from attending this wake. Please note that we (and mom) would not want anyone to take unnecessary risks should you have health issues which warrant you to avoid such a gathering (even in light of social distancing, masks, and strict control of the number of Visitors in the room). Please note that we understand completely, and know that your kind thoughts and prayers are greatly appreciated - should you be unable to attend this viewing. Stay safe..... from Don Rancourt
