“ Uncle Eddie, You will be missed by all of us. . You were so good to all of us kids. We could always trust that if we needed anything that you and Auntie pam would be there for us. A great man, an awesome uncle, and the king of Pranks. We could also depend on you.... while one of us kids were standing on the dock at Lake Sebago ( fully clothe or not) to walk up behind us and push us in. That would make your day:) I lve you more than you know. Auntie Pam, My thoughts are with you every moment. I love you both so much.- All my love, Laeslie

“ Pam and family, so glad I got to see you both, reconnect and share some cookies this past December. Hard to believe I have known Eddie for 40 years, having gone on one of his travel tours to Washington DC back in 1973! and Michael went along, too. The love and memories this man has left us with are infinite.
