“ Dear Uncle Tommy, Jean Anne, Nancy, Kevin, Chuck, and Tommy...
It is with deep sadness that I write this note. Although not technically a relative, my Aunt Betty was my Godmother, and my Mom's very dear friend. Although we did not see each other often throughout the years, Aunt Betty never missed sending me birthday, Christmas, and anniversary cards. And when we spoke on the phone she always was very upbeat and she had so many wonderful things to say about all of you.

Seeing all of your pictures with your wife/Mom/Grandmother was very touching. She was so kind, gentle, thoughtful, and loving. And in the pictures I see how much you all loved her, and how happy she was to have you near.

I would like to send holiday cards to all of you in the coming years. I have Uncle Tommy's address, and Nancy and Bob's. I would love it if the rest of you would send me your real mail addresses. Let's keep the greeting cards going. I think your Mom would like that. Love to all of you, Adrienne##imported-begin##Adrienne and Walt Whatley##imported-end##

“ Betty wasn't a mother-in law, she was a good friend. I think of the scene where Morgan Freeman tells Jack Nicholson about the questions you need to enter the next life.

1) did you experience joy in this Life?

Betty did

2) Did you give joy in this Life?

Betty certainly did.

Love you lady and will miss you###imported-begin##bob hall###imported-end##

“ JeanAnne, George, and Family, My deepest sympathies on the passing of your mother. Jay shared some of the details from your visit with her this past weekend. Sounds like a wonderful memory was created, and having spent a day with her family and new great-grandchild, she must have had a smile in her heart. Hugs to you in this most difficult time.
