“ I love you Gram! I never got to come see you as much as would have liked to, and I know I had a rough patch and dad was on the phone with you everyday! Who knows what he said, or what you thought then...Time goes by so fast, I thought I always had all the time in the world for my grandma...and that was foolish. And now you're gone, and its too late. I hope that you always knew how much I love you, and I hope that there are holes in the floor of heaven so you can look down on us from time to time. Dad hasn't been the same since you've gone, maybe you can look in on him a but too? Give grandpa and aunt Ann and aunt Rita our love? And aunt Pat too? I love you to the moon and back Grandma!
Love,
Deborah

“ My name is Jennifer and I am one of June’s 20 grandchildren. It is difficult to put into words what my grandmother meant to me. Well, I guess the title given to her says it all. She was a great mother to me. Growing up I spent every day with her she was my mentor, she was my best friend. When I first got married, and money was, as it always is, tight, I asked her what she fed to her brood of children, knowing that money was always tight for her. So, we sat down and she gave me a list of very cheap delicious meals which are still some of my family’s favorite. When my first born was teething, she showed me how to ease the pain by freezing a section of a wash cloth for my baby daughter to chew on. No matter what situation she was presented with, no matter how challenging; she was able to overcome it. My grandmother always taught me that no matter what happens in life, if you remain calm and positive you could overcome it. It was lessons like these, that I will remember the rest of my life. I will miss you Grandma June.
