“ Florence (Flo) was a good friend of mine and we spent many years of fun times and laughs together in a "Red Hat Chapter," and a "Circle of Friends group." Flo was a very caring person, who would be there for you in any emergency. She also helped me with many situations and her advice was valid and very much appreciated. I am going to miss my friend, but will forever hold her in my heart. RIP Flo, you will be greatly missed. I love you.

She was a good organizer so you knew if you were going with her have you energy on because she would have plans made for us all. I enjoyed being with her and hubby Jimmie one of the nicest guy you could meet. They were suited for each other and loved each other so much. Going to miss her. Hard to lose your friends.
