

Florence Rudolph

September 30, 2025

Florence (Kelleher) Rudolph passed away quietly on September 30th at the age of 101. A native of Lowell, MA, this powerful woman lived on her own for nearly thirty years after the death of her beloved husband, Harold Rudolph, in 1993. For many years, the Rudolphs lived in Urichsville, Ohio where Florence was an active member of the Immaculate Conception Church in Dennison, OH, and received honors for her varied and dedicated charitable work, including a venerable Lifetime Achievement Award from the American Heart Association.

In 1984, the Rudolphs returned to New England, settling in Nashua, NH, where Florence, a communicant of Saint Patrick's Church volunteered for many years at the local food pantry and enjoyed traveling abroad with friends. A lover of art, Mrs. Rudolph had what many consider a stunningly beautiful penmanship, with which she labeled her carefully crafted photo albums and transcribed and framed poetry for friends.

Always impeccably dressed and coiffed, she maintained gorgeous "Crystal Gayle" length hair over the course of her entire life. Much to the amazement of those around her, she walked in high heeled shoes until the age of 100. Florence touched many appreciative souls over the course of her vibrant, 101-year life and she will be greatly missed.

She is survived by her brother, Daniel Kelleher, of Dracut, MA, and her sister, Carol Brousseau, of Pelham, NH; her beloved niece Cherylann Kelleher of Hudson NH, and godson, George Brousseau of Pelham, NH, as well as many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her parents Florence (Murphy) Kelleher and James Kelleher, and her brothers James Kelleher and Donald Kelleher.

All services are private.