Frank A. Skidmore, 77, of New Ipswich NH, loving husband of Jackie, passed away peacefully surrounded by his family on January 12th from complications following a stroke.

Frank was born September 7, 1938 in Boston Massachusetts, son of the late Paul and Virginia (Kohlier) Skidmore.

Frank was a graduate of Boston College, with a Master's degree in Business. Most recently he worked at FCI as the Global Logistics Manager and traveled all over the world which he loved experiencing, before retiring in 2009 to enjoy time with his family. He enjoyed perfecting his lawn, cleaning and detailing his cars with his daughters, spoiling his dog Smokey, a good game of golf, watching Sunday football with Jackie, visiting with his daughters and their husbands and spending quality fun "Papa" time with his three granddaughters that he had given bear related nicknames.

“ I will never forget the first time I met Frank, and our argument over laundry! As I got to know him, I found out what a really kind and thoughtful man he was. He just tried not to show it! He was a Wonderful husband to Jackie, and a Great Father to Heather and Amber. He was also a Special Friend to me and my family. May you Rest in Peace, Frank "The Man" Skidmore....Love, Denise Carmosino, Rico, Carl, Anthony & Gina

I remember that first meeting like it was yesterday not 30 years ago this made me smile. Thank You Denise. You said I did 7 loads of laundry today. He said don't you mean the washing machine did that. The look on your face was priceless. He loved you. Not many actually knew the good guy , "The Man " as your kids called him. Such fond memories of our families growing up together in Danville.

“ *Heather, Jason, and family,
I am so sorry for your loss. I lost both of my parents in the last 16 months, so I know a little about what you are going through. There will be good times and bad times, but just keep reminding yourself that you are sad for yourselves. Your father is in heaven with his Heavenly Father and is very happy. And, also important, he didn't have to suffer long. There is nothing wrong with being happy for your father and sad for yourselves. Just let yourselves feel and react how you need to at any given times. The mourning process is not simple or the same for everyone. Be kind to yourselves and you'll adjust to a new normal - eventually. Love to you all and your in my prayers.*
