George Lucien Gagnon, 95 of Nashua, passed away on August 15, 2025 after a period of declining health. He was just shy of his 96th birthday.

George was born August 17, 1929 in Nashua, son of the late Albert and Alice (Boucher) Gagnon.

Once he moved back to Nashua, he was a hard working laborer at JF McElwain as well as other factories in Nashua. In his retirement, George cared for his family home, taking pride in year round yard work. His greatest accomplishment was that of caring for his beloved wife throughout her long battle with Alzheimers.
