“ I recently learned that George had passed away. I worked with him in 1980, my first year with Phillips. He was always kind, and had a heart to help the "new" employees, like me. He was a calm voice in the middle of a storm for new employees. About one year ago, I saw him at Braum's having breakfast. I re-introduced myself, since it had been many years (and many job transfers) since I had last seen him. Although older, and a little more frail, he remembered me and was very gracious. Since that encounter, I had seen his red and white Chevy pickup (with Col-High front plate) numerous times, usually coming from the local Braum's (the breakfast spot). I hope his family and friend find comfort in knowing how much he was a gentle, and nurturing tutor in the workplace, and how much those who worked with him respected him. God bless.

“ George was the best neighbor anyone could ask for. Always there with a smile...he was a kind, funny, and caring man. Our family will miss him greatly and never forget such a special person. Wishing his family peace and comfort during this time and the days ahead.
