A moving photo collage. I was reminded by the photo of him at the Silver Knights game with the church group the Knights were behind in the bottom of the 9th, so we put our caps in rally mode, including George. And the Silver Knights won. He was proud of his grandsons' baseball prowess.

Thank you for all that you gave and shared with me, you were always willing to explain in detail and taught me to be the skilled craftsman I am today. Godspeed my brother I hope it smells like ink in Heaven.

I just found out you passed. Thank you for all your wisdom on the press. You were a great pressman and an even better man. I will always remember our business trip to Chicago.

“ I am saddened to learn of George’s passing. He and I were classmates long ago at St. Margaret’s. We last saw each other at a Rotary Club event some years back honoring his son-in-law, Ernie, and it was a fun blast from the past. My sympathy to all his family; may good memories sustain all of you.
Sincerely, Helen Quinlan Littlefield

“ This is very sad news. George and I spent a lot of time together. We walked the streets of the Highlands for several years. He was just a great guy and friend. Although I had not seen him for many many years, I have such great memories of us together—my condolences to his surviving family.

“ George gave me the greatest gift years ago. A painting he did of my dog Emma Rae. It is still my MOST prized possession. George I could not have asked for a better brother-in-law. I am glad my last visit with you I was able to make you laugh. I will miss your advice and your wit. Rest in Peace Dear George. I hope you knew how much you were loved.
