

Gregory D. Taylor

August 14, 2003 - June 27, 2024

Gregory D. Taylor, 20, died unexpectedly on June 27, 2024 while on a family vacation in Maine. He was born in Nashua, NH on August 14, 2003 and is the beloved son of Lyn and Brian Taylor.

Gregory graduated from Alvirne High School with the class of 2021. At his graduation, he received the school's Core Values Award in recognition of his demonstration of Character, Curiosity, Commitment and Community. During his high school career he displayed a passion for culinary arts, computer programming, wilderness survival and robotics.

After graduation, Gregory enrolled at Nashua Community College in pursuit of a degree in computer science. He was looking forward to taking part in this year's summer and fall terms.

While taking classes, Gregory pursued occupations that matched his passions. One of his positions was as a software developer for AdMagic. It was his goal to be a full stack developer and it was not uncommon to see him researching, learning and talking about various technologies at all hours of the day and night.

Most weekends, he enjoyed his other passion by working part time at Five Guys. At the end of any shift, he was always smiling and happy to come home with a burger and fries.

In both jobs he made a lasting impression on his co-workers, especially his dedicated mentors, who will miss him greatly.

When not working, Gregory had various interests. Some of these included gaming with and talking to many of his close friends, trying to solve hands-on puzzles and brainteasers as well as enjoying anything related to penguins. Gregory enjoyed being in the kitchen. He was always combining various foods and spices in innovative ways to create delicious meals. He particularly enjoyed baking pies during the holidays. In addition, Gregory also had a natural ability to take spectacular pictures of nature with any phone or camera.

In addition to his loving parents Lyn and Brian, he is survived by his sister, Jessica, his brother David as well as his paternal grandmother. Gregory is also survived by many aunts, uncles, cousins, other caring extended family members and countless friends.

A time of visitation will be held on Thursday, July 11th from 4:00pm – 5:30pm with a Prayer Service at 5:30pm in the Dumont-Sullivan Funeral Home, 50 Ferry Street in Hudson, NH. Burial will be private. In lieu of flowers, the family asks you to take a moment to hug those you love.

Previous Events

Visitation

JUL 11. 4:00 PM - 5:30 PM (ET)

Dumont-Sullivan Funeral Home Hudson, NH
50 Ferry Street
Hudson, NH 03051
(603) 882-9431
info@dumontsullivan.com

PRAYER SERVICE

JUL 11. 5:30 PM (ET)

Dumont-Sullivan Funeral Home Hudson, NH
50 Ferry Street
Hudson, NH 03051
(603) 882-9431
info@dumontsullivan.com

Tribute Wall

“ Dumont-Sullivan Funeral Homes & Cremation Services created a Tribute Video in memory of Gregory D. Taylor

Dumont-Sullivan Funeral Homes - July 08, 2024 at 06:48 PM

TG

What a beautiful video

Tracy Gunn - July 08, 2024 at 09:35 PM

JM

My heart goes out to the whole family for the loss of such a fine young man. Our sincerest condolences on behalf of my family to yours Brian and Lyn...

John Murphy - July 09, 2024 at 08:08 PM

CG

What a beautiful tribute to Gregory. May he rest in peace. Our deepest love and condolences to your family. Gone too soon...forever in your hearts.

Cheri Gratton - July 10, 2024 at 08:58 PM

BH

This Tribute to Gregory was perfect. My condolences to you and your family. Gregory was a joy to know and I may have only known him almost a year, he was the sweetest person I knew and I'm glad I met him.

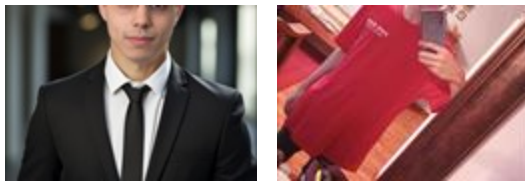

Brianna Hammonds - July 18, 2024 at 10:33 PM

MA

“ I was one of Greg's closest friends, even though we only ever knew each other over the internet, and for a relatively short while. We met by chance in a video game around three years ago, and he quickly became a beloved member of our friend group. To us, he was 'Midgy' - a self-deprecatory yet endearing nickname he gave himself, referencing his short stature. He told us that he sometimes forgot that wasn't really his name!

Greg was an incredible friend to myself and others, and truly had a heart of gold. He was patient, caring, and had a great sense of humor. He was an avid lover of both nature and technology, frequently showing us his coding advancements and stunning wildlife photos. I messaged him nearly every day for the past several years, only finding out today about his untimely passing. Myself and my friends are devastated and heartbroken, yet eternally grateful to have made precious memories with Greg. He enriched our lives in more ways than we can count, and it won't be the same without him around.

I find it humorous that the only pictures of 'Midgy' I can find are him in an AI generated suit, and him in his Five Guy's uniform - pictures that encapsulate his interests, his hardworking, passionate attitude, and his gusto for life. I only wish we had been able to meet in person like we always talked about. Rest In Peace and thanks for the memories, bud. We love and miss you always.

Matthew Anderson - July 18, 2024 at 10:24 PM

KC

“ Ke'Ron Clark lit a candle in memory of Gregory D. Taylor

Ke'Ron Clark - July 18, 2024 at 09:25 PM

PF

“ Gregory Taylor graduated from our Back End Development Program in September 2023, and his final project was an impressive API for storing and itemizing music, songs, and artists. While I didn't have the opportunity to know him well personally, only virtually, his dedication and hard work were evident in his achievements and contributions to our community. We extend our deepest condolences to his family and friends during this difficult time.

PT Family - July 11, 2024 at 05:34 PM

NS

“ I have known Greg since he was 16. He walked into my Computer Principles class unsure of what he wanted to do with his life, whether college was for him or not, and stressed out about COVID like everyone else.

As time went along, I saw him grow academically and he found interest in solving complex problems. I offered him an internship at my company, and he jumped. I then hired him as a Developer and watched him grow and mature professionally and as a person.

We met every day, I enjoyed his self-deprecating humor, his enthusiasm, and the solutions he came up with. Most importantly he was a good person and a joy to be around. I am in shock and will miss him greatly.

Nick Stolos - July 10, 2024 at 08:08 AM

JW

“ I had a soft spot in my heart for my nephew, Gregory, since the first day I met him. I will surely miss his big brown eyes and warm, wide smile. I'll never forget how quickly he learned to use scissors as a very young child, doing math homework or reading with him. His passion for technology, cooking, photography, and nature was impressive. His kind spirit and love of helping others was admirable. As you reflect on the joy he brought, may you find peace and solace in the beautiful moments you shared.

Jill Wilson - July 09, 2024 at 07:21 PM

IM

“ Lyn, Brian and family, we are so incredibly sorry for your loss. Thinking of you with a heavy heart. Much Love, Chuck and Iris Mattia

Iris Mattia - July 08, 2024 at 05:43 PM

JC

“ I went into today's meeting expecting to see Greg Taylor with us, instead of the standard proceedings it was a somber affair indicative of the loss you must surely be facing. Greg was always upbeat during these meeting and when we worked together always trying to look for the light and better possibilities. Of the members of our team he was the most enamored by AI assisted development, always believing that tomorrow would be better than today. Do not let this darkness consume you, tomorrow will come with new possibilities and new opportunities for wonder. You will be in my family's thoughts tonight.

Joseph Cole

This was initially written on the First of July upon hearing of the news.

Joseph Cole - July 08, 2024 at 04:04 PM

SR

“ Greg was good friend of mine, I originally meet him in the first grade at a Hudson elementary school but I wouldn't remember as a moved later on. It wasn't till I moved back to Hudson and attended Hudson Memorial Middle school that I truly got to know him. Over the time I was there I didn't have many friends but I was greatly to call Gregory one of them. He was kind, smart and witty, he honestly probably thought I was quite annoying but he still stuck with me till high school. My sophomore year was my last at Alvirne High school and it wasn't till I got to college that I was able to regularly talk with Greg again like old times as we both attended NCC. But then unfortunately I moved again this time to South Carolina but we were able to keep in touch. As Time went on though we hadn't been able to communicate as frequently do to Work and attending school, the last time we talked was a few months ago, although brief I will cherish that moment. Gregory Taylor wasn't just my friend he was someone I considered my best friend and a Great man overall and will miss him deeply. I give my condolences to the rest of the Taylor family And anyone else Who was close to him. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, I thank you for raising such a great person.

Santos Roman - July 06, 2024 at 12:39 PM

HB

“ I worked with Greg at five guys, he was truly the most kindest,smartest person and he was always teaching me knew things I didn't know. He always made sure to keep a smile on everyone's face and make sure they were ok. My favorite memory was probably are morning opening crew on the weekends and all of our long talks! he always had a big smile on his face and was the first to say hi to me and ask how I was, he will truly be missed my condolences and prayers are with you all.

hailey baker - July 05, 2024 at 01:29 PM

CG

“ I worked with Greg at Five Guys, he was a good worker and always a pleasure to work with. He will be forever missed!

Courtney Genao - July 05, 2024 at 01:15 PM

JM

“ I hired Greg to work at Five Guys when my store was in a period of transition. I remember asking him what he knew about Five Guys & he told me he thought it was cool that we knew what parallel we got our potatoes from. He helped me build up my team again & in the process become an integral part of it. I called him my "weekend minion" He was willing to do whatever task I asked of him, even if it occasionally put him out of his comfort zone. And he was always so excited when the team was doing well. I'll miss my shifts with him, they were always ones that I looked forward to working.

Jessica Mahoney - July 05, 2024 at 03:15 AM

AJ

“ My most precious memory of Gregory was the time we sat together and I taught him to thread a sewing machine and then he proceeded to sew himself a pillow. He was always looking to learn new things. I will miss you dearly you sweet sweet boy. Forever in my heart. May you rest in peace. ❤️. 🛖.

Aunt Jane - July 05, 2024 at 01:32 AM

TC

“ He was such a smart, sweet kid. I wish we had played some D&D together like we wanted. We would have had a great time. Our hearts and prayers are with you all now and always.

The Carons - July 04, 2024 at 09:06 PM

MG

“ In 2016, I spent a morning with Gregory and family at a park in Hudson. Gregory taught me about the different animals that we saw. At the end of the walk, Gregory chased a frog into the pond despite his mother warning him not to get his clothes dirty. He was a very curious young man! I will miss you cousin Gregory. -Michael and Ann

Michael Garrison - July 04, 2024 at 08:59 PM

JP

“ I had to smile when I saw that Gregory loved to photography nature. When he was a kid, we went to Benson's Park, cameras in hand, to photograph. Like so many of you. I have so many wonderful, warm memories of Gregory.

Jeanne Provencher - July 04, 2024 at 08:54 PM

MG

“ I remember spending the morning with Gregory and the family at a park in Hudson. Gregory knew all the animals and taught me the animal types. At the end of the walk, Gregory saw a frog and chased it into the pond to catch it despite his mother warning him not to get his clothes dirty! He was so curious. I took a photo with him in the gorilla cage at the end of the visit. I will miss you cousin Gregory. -Michael and Ann

Michael Garrison - July 04, 2024 at 08:54 PM