“ Hug your Mother at every Pass!
You never know, it could be your last!

Open your heart and forget the past,
Don't close the door on it,
Examine it, and learn from it.

Take it from me, and learn from this!
I'd hate for anyone to miss out,
Years and years that I can never get back!
Tears and Tears you just can't hold back.

I love you Mom and never stopped!
I hope you heard me towards the end,
The things I said, the regrets I shared.

Most of all I hope you felt my love in your heart!

And I will always remember how you were always there, no matter what!
Whether I screwed up big-time, or a minor offense..
You really taught me what a difference love brings, What a mother should be!

I'm thankful for so many great memories I will always hold in my heart,
And Now Know, we will never be apart!

I love you Mom, with all my heart!

“ I have quite a few of memories of my friend Helen. Especially, with our look a like dogs, Her Blarney and my Forrest were great buddies. Whenever we'd go away to Abu Dhabi or Indonesia. Helen was the only one I trusted with my Forrest. She would tell me how she would drive thru Wendy's to get the boys a hamburger. Now Helen is with Blarney & Forrest. My prayers are with Helen and her family.##imported-begin##Claire Dupuis##imported-end##

“ Mom....Thank you so much for always treating me like I was your own son. You always made me laugh and made me feel special. Thanks for bringing my lovely wife Michelle into this world. It's comforting to know that you are now at peace although our hearts hurt knowing we can't see or talk with you. Time will heal the pain in our hearts, and we will smile when we think about you daily. Love
