“ I have too many amazing memories to name just one but cribbage with nana was some of the best times at her house. I will celebrate her life with every day of mine. Nana you will be missed but I rejoice knowing some day I will come home and see your beautiful smile waiting for me by God's side.

“ Never would you hear complain from her, even toward the end when she had enough reason to, she kept her beautiful contagious smile. My favorite memory of her is while I was growing up, I'd often spend nights or weeks at her house. I'd wake up early in the morning and come down stairs and she'd have the kitchen sparkling clean already, just waiting for us to awake. She'd turn around and see me coming in the room and exclaim, "GOOD MORNING SUNSHINE!!" I've never been excited for mornings as I am not a morning person, but I was always excited to wake and hear her yell that. It made my day start so much better. I miss her dearly but she will always live in my sweet memories.
