“ I (and my husband, Greg) moved next door to the Vezinas in 1985 and we began a lifetime friendship. Dani was about 13 at the time. Eventually Greg's oldest son came to live with us; he was about 14 and younger brother Bob moved in about a year later. Dani and Greg, Jr. also became good friends and stay in touch to this day. I recall many times Sue, Hank, Greg, Sr. and I would sit and talk about the perils of raising teenagers. Sue's favorite mantra was that all teenagers were "brain dead!" Sue even had a scientific graph that proved it! We had many great laughs!

Greg and I later moved to Milford but we never lost contact with our good friends. Hank and Sue are like the big brother/big sister to us. Greg sadly passed away in 2006 and the Vezinas were very supportive to me. Shortly after Greg's passing I came across our tax bill and thought it hadn't been paid. When I learned it had, I told Sue, "well, I guess I have all this money I didn't think I'd have so how about Fox Woods?" Sue said, "I'll pick you up Sunday!" And she did! While her day wasn't profitable, I won over $600! We had such a great time.

I have so many wonderful memories of Hank; the rides in the vet and the "drop-ins" at my house to see how I was doing. But I'll mostly miss his hugs and adorable nibbles on my neck which always gave me goose bumps and made me giggle like a little school-girl. But that's what Hank was all about. He just made people feel good about themselves.

Sue, Dani, Alex and Gabe - my heart aches for you. Call on me any time. All my love, Penny Arsenault

“ Dear Sue and Danielle,
I just pick up the Fitchburg Sentinel and saw Hank's face looking back at me from the ob section...I can't believe Hank is gone...the stories I can tell you about Hank and Dickie...I often thought of you two thru the years and wondered how you were both doing...and to read about Danielle and her two children...what joy they must have brought to Hank.

Dear Sue, Dani & Family,

Hank was an integral part of "Rossi's Rangers"...the greatest group of staffing professionals ever assembled. That was @ DEC back in the 70's and 80's. I had the priviledge of working with Hank and also being a fellow member of the B.O.C.C.E. group. He was a true professional and admired throughout the HR community. My wife, Elaine and I extend our deepest condolences upon your loss. Our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time

“ Sue and Danielle,

I used to work with Hank at Digital Equipment in the Human Resources Department. He was one of the best recruiters I've ever work for.

Very people oriented, fun and always willing to help out. We had more laughs when we worked together, always had a smile on his face and always the jokster! we pulled a few! :-)

I'm so sorry to hear that he had been ill...it's been awhile that I talked to him. I just want you to know he was truly an amazing man and he'll very much be missed. I'm glad that he left his foot print in my life....

Fondly,
