

Howard Dilworth Jr.

August 19, 2012

Howard Dilworth Jr., 58, of Hudson, NH died Sunday Aug 19, 2012 at Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston Massachusetts.

Howard was born on February 19, 1954 in Cambridge, MA son of the late Howard Sr. and Roberta (Daniels) Dilworth.

Howard was very civic minded and served the Hudson community in countless ways throughout his life. He was a volunteer Hudson Fire Fighter for 27 years.

In 1993 he ran and was elected to the budget committee and in 1994 when Hudson switched governing bodies from council to selectmen, Howard ran and was elected as a selectman where he served a three year term.

Howard was one of the founding members of the coalition of New Hampshire Taxpayers, a watch group for state government matters, in 1998 and was their first vice chairman. Howard was also the president of the Hudson Historical Society from 1992 - 1994 and has been active since and has also been a member of Nashua Regional Planning Commission (NRPC) and is on the Executive Board.

Howard is survived by mother, Mary Dilworth of Hudson, NH; a brother Roger Dilworth of Hudson, NH; a sister Deborah Hayes and her husband John of Litchfield, NH; a niece, Sarah Costello and her husband Glen of Londonderry, NH and many dear friends.

“ Howard, you were probably the most knowledgeable person in the entire town when it came to town history, town politics, town meeting rules, etc. While we didn't agree on issues, you were a great asset to our town for many, many years. I wish you well on your next journey.##imported-begin##Donna Ohanian##imported-end##

“ It was with a great sense of loss when I heard of Howard death.

I wanted to let his family know that have my greatest sympathy.

Howard was more than just a wonderful person; he was an inspiration and I always welcomed talk with him at every opportunity.

I know that his passing will leave a void in the hearts of all those who knew him.

I have included Howard and his family in our daily prayers.

With my deepest sympathy,
